

COHORT 6 OF THE EQUITY PRACTITIONER PROGRAM

The 6th cohort of the Equity Practitioner Program (EPP) is half way through their EPP experience! This cohort consists of fellows from Colonial School District, Delaware Department of Education, Great Oaks Charter School, and Branywine School District. As with every new cohort, we've been inspired by the group's deep engagement and responses to the rigorous readings and in-depth conversations. Fellows have now begun working in organizational teams to design an equity-focused direct action plan that they will implement over the next several months. We're truly delighted they've joined our growing coalition of EPP change makers.

Through this experience, fellows are saying:

"I am getting more confident with each meeting!"

"I am feeling empowered to do the work."

"I feel more confident about engaging and disrupting!"

LEAD FOR DELAWARE WELCOMES BACK ALUMNI

This month, as Lead For Delaware's (LFD) 7th cohort began their 2-year journey to school leader certification, we welcomed LFD alumni to share their experiences. Thank you to LFD alumni, Autumn Green (Cohort 3), Nicole Smith (Cohort 3), Justin Hanger (Cohort 4), and Tabitha Walls (Cohort 6) for joining us and sharing your personal leadership journey and tips for success in LFD with our newest cohort!

"Keep it coming. I love the real life examples and guest speakers."

ANGELA PERRY SPEAKS TO LEADERSHIP DELAWARE

Angela Perry, Founder and Executive Director of 4th-Dimension Leaders was invited to speak with the fellows of Leadership Delaware (LDI) this month. Angela shared with the cohort the work that 4DL is doing in Delaware and gave an overview of the education landscape. Angela's presentation created much enthusiasm, and we look forward to building upon our new connections with LDI. Thank you for having us!
